VENERATED EDISCOVERY EXPERT, RETIRED JUDGE JOHN M. FACCIOLA, JOINS SUNBLOCK SYSTEMS' SPECIAL MASTERS GROUP

WASHINGTON, DC January 24, 2017 — SunBlock Systems, Inc., a leader in digital forensics and eDiscovery services, today announced that Judge John M. Facciola (Ret.) has joined the firm's newly established special masters group.

Pursuant to Rule 53 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, courts have the power to appoint judicial adjuncts or "special masters" to assist with civil and criminal cases. Judge Facciola will provide his eDiscovery expertise to courts and private litigants as he joins other industry leaders in SunBlock's special masters group. The group provides courts and litigants with highly specialized expertise in the fields of digital data collection and assessment, eDiscovery and financial accounting for the purpose of resolving complex issues that arise in litigation.

Judge Facciola is available as a special master to facilitate meet and confer discussions to avoid eDiscovery problems and to fashion reasonable agreements and eDiscovery protocols. He is also available to monitor and compel compliance with court orders, to resolve discovery disputes and to provide courts with reports and recommendations. For private litigants, Judge Facciola is available to mediate disputes, to adjudicate at mock trials, and to provide opinion letters on issues pertaining to eDiscovery and compliance with eDiscovery rulings.

"We are thrilled to leverage Judge Facciola's leadership and expertise. No one can dispute the impact Judge Facciola has made in the field of eDiscovery," said David Sun, CEO and Founder of SunBlock Systems, Inc. "We look forward to facilitating Judge Facciola's continued impact and contribution in the field of eDiscovery."

"I am honored to join SunBlock's special masters group, and I am looking forward to using my expertise and experience to help courts and litigants resolve eDiscovery issues in cost-effective, fair, and reasonable ways. I look forward to working with the many great people in the legal community with whom I have had the pleasure of meeting and exchanging ideas with over the past twenty years," said Judge Facciola.
